

OKPIK 2010

Cold Weather Camping Training For Adults

When: January 9 - 10
Where: Camp Boyhaven
Cost: $35.00 per person

Deadline December 22, 2009

The full know how on winter camping is now available. How to be warm and comfortable can be found in 60+ pages of handouts, 10 hours of lectures, and the BSA book "OKPIK". With luck we'll even practice snowshoeing on a foot of snow, and sleep warm in a windproof tent. Join us for a happy weekend, and discover how easy comfort can be. Initial handouts will be mailed to you right after we receive your registration fee.

This challenging program for youth is intended to help you develop the winter camping skills necessary to take a Troop or Patrol on a successful outdoor winter camping trip. Participants are required to be at least 13 years of age, have attained the rank of First Class, and received Camping Merit Badge. Additional details, including an equipment list for participants, will be sent to each preregistrant.

OKPIK

Advanced 3rd year program Adirondack Wilderness Trek

When: To be Announced
Where: Adirondack Wilderness Area

A winter trek into the wilderness is a rewarding experience you will never forget. All applicants must have successfully completed an OKPIK-GAWASA training course. Applicants will be screened for preparation and proper equipment prior to being approved for participation.

The Trek will be held if there are enough interested scouts and scouters.

Youth applicants will be given priority; extra positions may be filled by qualified adult applicants.

The 2nd year Program will also be available this year.
